

Sample 5 day skiing itinerary

Arrive Saturday and be collected by us for your private transfer to Casa Aventura. A Champagne and nibbles reception awaits you on arrival. Relax and take in the spectacular scenery before enjoying a delicious three-course meal with local wines or sangria in our intimate Morus dining room.

On Sunday after an early breakfast we will transfer you to your country hotel near the Sierra Nevada resort. While you settle in, your lift passes will be collected. After your skis are fitted we will accompany you up to the ski domain and be on hand to answer all your questions. After a good day's skiing, return to your hotel, have a relaxing bath, and then sample the traditional regional cuisine on offer in the hotel's restaurant.

On Monday you can ski all day in your group in the knowledge that we will be on hand to help if needed. Return to the hotel and enjoy a drink in the bar before your evening meal. If you wish you can be transported to the nearby lively ski resort to sample the nightlife.

On Tuesday you can ski in your group all day before being collected by us to be transported back to Casa Aventura where you can enjoy another sumptuous home-cooked meal. Relax in the bar afterwards with coffee and liqueurs.

Departure Day after breakfast depending on your flight time, simply chill and enjoy the facilities on offer at Casa Aventura before being transported to the airport.

Should you require ski tuition, this can be arranged for you in advance by us with no fuss. If you wish, you can arrange to bring your own skis and boots.

We offer discounts for children.

We offer anything from 3-day ski weekends to seven day holidays. Alternatively, you can choose to extend your ski holiday to include any of our other activities.

All our prices include airport transfers, accommodation, breakfasts, evening meals, ski hire, lift passes, champagne and nibbles reception and your own hosts: Peter and Maureen.
